J EDGAR THOMSON, CHARLES L. FROST, } Trustees.

The Bonds are issued at $20 000 per mile against the portion only of the line fully completed and equipped. The greater part of the road is already in operation and the present earnings are largely in excess of the operating expenses and interest on the Bonds. The balance of the work necessary to establish through connections, thereby shortening the distance between St Paul and Chicago 45 miles, and 90 miles to St. Louis, is rapidly progressing in time for the movement of the coming grain crops, which it is estimated, will double the present income of the road. The established character of this road, running as it does through the heart of the most thickly settled and richest portion of the great State of Iowa, together with its present advanced condition and large earnings warrant us in unhesitatingly recommending these Bonds to investors as in every respect, an undoubted security. A small quantity of the issue only remains unsold, and when the enterprise is completed, which will be this Fall, an immediate advance over subscription price may be looked for. The Bonds have 50 years to run, are convertible at the option of the holder into the stock of the Company at par and the payment of the principal is provided for by a sink ing fund. The convertibility privilege attached to these Bonds cannot fail to cause them at an early day to command a market price considerably above par. U S Five-twenties, at present prices, return only 4½ per cent. currency interest, while these Bonds pay 8½ per cent., and we regard them to be as safe and fully equal as security to any Railroad Bond issued; and until they are placed upon the New York Stock Exchange, the rules of which require the road to be completed, we obligate ourselves to re-buy at any time any of these Bonds sold by us after this date at the same price as realized by us on their sale. All marketable Securities taken in payment free of Commission and Express charges.

PORTLAND AND OGDENSBURG RAILROAD

First Mortgage Bonds

Principal and Interest Payable in Gold

The undersigned have authority to offer for sale the Bonds of the Portland & Ogdensburg Railroad Company at the very low price of 90 with accrued interest in currency

This road is now completed to West Baldwin and trains are running to that point 33 miles from Portland. Beyond West Baldwin the road is graded to Fryeburg 50 miles from Portland, and the rails will be laid to that point as early in the spring as the weather will permit. From Fryeburg the road is under contract to Conway N H to which point trains will run in July 1871

The road has thus far been built and equipped from cash subscriptions to the Capital Stock but to complete it to Bartlett N H and to provide additional equipment for its increasing business the Company has issued bonds to the amount of $800 000 secured by a mortgage of its entire property to the following Trustees

WOODBURY DAVIS
SAMUEL E SPRING
WESTON F MILLIKEN

We offer these Bonds for sale and confidently recommend them as a safe and profitable investment for these reasons

1 Low Price At the present value of U S Bonds these Bonds pay one per cent more interest ... on the investment

2 Ample security The entire mortgage upon the road when completed to Bartlett will be only $1 500 per mile ... less encumbrance than upon any other Railroad in Maine with a single exception and less than the value of its rails and equipment

3 Large and profitable local traffic The business upon the line already completed ... the expectations of its most sanguine friends and secures beyond a doubt the interest on its Bonds. The line is the natural outlet of some of the finest water powers in the state on the Presumpscot and Saco rivers hitherto unimproved on account of the difficulty of reaching the sea board. It taps the large interior navigation of Lake Sebago and its tributaries over 30 miles of inland waters draining a very large agricultural district lying on the shores of Lake Sebago, and on the banks of the Ossipee and Saco rivers and penetrates the heart of the White Mountains at Conway and Bartlett the most popular summer resorts of the region

4 Prospective connections This road is to form part of a trunk line from Lake Champlain to the seaboard. Its sister Corporation in Vermont is rapidly building the Western Division of the road from Swanton to the Connecticut river and the entire line when completed will be the shortest connection between Ogdensburg the great distributing point of the lakes and tide water

We offer these Bonds for the present in denominations of $1,000 or $500 at

WAR AND POPULATION —The following figures have been published to show the effect which our civil war has had upon the increase of the population of the country— Our population in the following years was as follows

1840	17 069,453
1850	23,191,876
1860	31,443,321
1870	38,312,633

From 1840 to 1850 the increase in population was 6,122,423, or 35.87 per cent, from 1850 to 1860, 8,251,445, or 35.58 per cent from 1860 to 1870 it has been but 6,869,312 or 21.85 per cent.

It is estimated that had it not been for that war, our present population would have been 45,630,854. This would show that the actual loss of human lives to us, caused directly and indirectly by the war, amounted to no less than from four to five millions.

THE CRUCIAL TEST FOR FRANCE

The dispatches already received, although lacking positive confirmation of the surrender of Paris, plainly indicate that the inevitable disaster is about to fall We have not been of those who anticipated that the hastily assembled and imperfectly disciplined forces of the French—gathered into armies amid the depressing influences of cumulative and crushing defeats, under a government improvised to meet an invasion already threatening the capital, and led by officers who, despite their gallantry, were unused to directing the immense operations of a general campaign—would be able to thrust back the solid masses of Germany, swarming across the border, strong in the consciousness of almost uninterrupted victory, flushed with the prospect of avenging former humiliation, and filled with that unsurpassable skill which had already made Prussia literally a nation of soldiers The regular army of France was swept away with the Empire and the fall of Metz and we have felt and stated that there could be little hope in prolonging the bloody contest

How many men have fallen during the one hundred and thirty one days since Paris was isolated by the besiegers on the 18th of September we cannot say, and who shall count the sufferings of that period? There can it seems be no feeling of regret, deeply as we may sympathize with the agonizing struggles of a gallant nation, that can outweigh the feeling of relief that the hopeless slaughter is about to end While there was a hope for France Americans would be the last to counsel retreat but with the certainty of ultimate defeat making the dreadful contest worse than a useless sacrifice, in the interest of humanity and of France herself, pouring out torrents of blood in an unequal struggle we can but welcome the close.

But what will become of France? This question so momentous not only to that nation but to Europe and the world, is brought more vividly before us with the fall of Paris as from the date of its capitulation the solution of the problem must begin

It is inferred that Germany will consent to treat with the Provisional government subject to popular satisfaction and Bismarck has affirmed that France will be allowed to establish such rule as the people may desire. The demands of Germany will doubtless be eventually complied with under the stern pressure of necessity, and if Frenchmen are left at liberty to choose, what will be the nature of their choice? With the end of the war will come the crucial test of French republicanism Relieved of that pressure of desperation which welded the masses into unnatural concert of purpose, the vacillating impulses of the population will be tampered with by emissaries of various factions and all the discordant elements invoked to favor the schemes of ambitious men Reckless in defeat and exasperated by the forced subjection to a hated foreign foe, the popular motions will be easily played upon by intriguers and it is difficult to foresee the final result

We have known the fickleness of France in the past but the last revolution seemed brought about by more earnest purpose, and it has been sustained with such persistent and unswerving devotion that we hope even the reality of final defeat may not destroy the foundations of freedom which have been laid amid scenes of calamity and terror If the peaceful existence of republican France shall date from the surrender of her capital, the fall of Paris will not be remembered as the darkest day in her history

In the article upon the Electoral vote for 1872 which we quoted from the New York Tribune yesterday in following the usually accurate figures of that paper we copied its error of stating the estimated Republican majority too low by ten As the footings were Dem Electors 147 Repub Electors 179 the majority should of course be 32, instead of 22 as we gave it

Gov Brown of Mississippi sent a special message to the Legislature on Thursday recommending three laws recommending the establishment in the State of a Home of Refuge for juvenile criminals a thorough geological survey of the State and a complete revision of the revenue and insurance laws—The Governor thinks that adultery is the only sufficient cause for absolute divorce and suggests that the act be made final and when a decree of adultery is sufficient to justify legal separation the guilty party should be punished by the same judgment that grants divorce

Mr. Seward in China Admiral Rodgers commanding the Asiatic fleet, reports, from Woosung, China December, 12, his return to that place from Pekin with Secretary Seward and his party who on their journey toward from the capital, were everywhere received with courtesy In Pekin Prince Kung and officers of the Imperial Cabinet returned the visit which had been made to them The interview was very agreeable, but their conversation was confined to generalities Mr Seward once or twice touched lightly upon serious matters, but discussion was avoided by them The Admiral was convinced, from the impressions he received from various sources that the Imperial government understands that it cannot cope with any great Western power in war, and will avoid, as far as it can, any occasion for war Admiral Rodgers says the present dynasty is in a helpless and decaying condition and on the verge of dissolution, and he predicts its speedy downfall The Admiral and Minister Low will go to Corea in May to negotiate a treaty with that Government.

Charges of gross cruelty have been preferred against Captain A A Semmes, of the U S ship Portsmouth, now on the Brazilian station The cruelties are said to have consisted of nailing men up in boxes for days tying them up by the thumbs, &c One of the ships writers was cognizant of all these cruelties and had entered returns of the punishment in the log book The officers, thinking that he knew too much of the way in which things were managed, reduced him He afterwards refused to do duty, and was court-martialed and sentenced to the penitentiary for several years. Though there has been much delay, it is reported that the commander and his executive officers are now to be tried

Judge Black, in his vituperative reply (in the Galaxy for February) to Senator Wilson's vindication of the late Hon. Edwin M Stanton, makes this statement: "A man may be an honest Democrat or a sincere Abolitionist, but he can not honestly and sincerely be both at the same time." Whereupon the Tribune asks "What sort of Democracy is that which makes it impossible for a Democrat to be opposed to slavery?"

Admiral Lee of the Navy has been on a visit to San Domingo, and tells what he saw in an official letter to the Navy Department. The description which he gives of the political and financial condition of the country is not calculated to advance the scheme of annexation, unless it is undertaken as a sort of national charity.

HIGHWAY TRAVELLING BY STEAM

AUGUSTA, Me, Jan. 26.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

The petition of Thomas Taylor for authority to transport freight, passengers, &c., over the highways in Franklin Co. was taken up before the Railroad Committee to-day

Mr Perkins, of Farmington, said no objection has been made to this scheme in his section, and he had presented the matter for consideration of the committee.

Hon E F Pillsbury, of Augusta, presented the claims of the petitioner Mr Taylor proposes to try the experiment of running steam carriages on the roads, or highways, in Franklin Co, especially from Farmington to Phillips In 1860, Jeremiah Fenno and others, were given the exclusive right for the State to employ steam power on the public roads of the State, if he would put them in operation in one year He said the machine of Mr Taylor is under perfect control so that but little noise is made, and there is no reason why it should frighten teams, &c The bill says if the experiment is not put into operation by June 1st, 1872, it is to be void

Mr Ellis, foreman in the machine shop, Augusta, said he has had 17 years experience in engines The engine for highway use should be at least 4½ feet wide—about the size of a large trunk wagon Would recommend a low pressure engine These machines would weigh about 5000 lbs Thinks the traction engine is successful Rate of speed would be from 4½ to 7 miles an hour—thinks 10 miles an hour can be obtained

Mr Pillsbury explained further

Mr Perkins said there is no place in Maine better to try the experiment than from Farmington to New Sharon for there is a broad level road for nine miles Some other method than by teams is wanted in his section If this experiment is not successful in this place it cannot be anywhere

Mr Fenderson, of Farmington, said there is no objection to the scheme but nearly all favor it The roads from Farmington to New Sharon is well adapted to the machine Mr Taylor would be responsible for any reasonable amount of damage. If it is successful a company will probably be formed, which will be entirely responsible

It was voted to lay the petition upon the table, and to allow the petitioners to present a bill for the consideration of the Committee for them to report

There was not much doubt but the Committee will report a bill at the next meeting

Narrow Escape of a Steamer The Steamship Cuba from N S, to Baltimore, on the 23d inst., when about 120 miles east of Charleston, S C, saw an hermaphrodite brig nearly abeam steering N E Shortly after, the brig suddenly changed her direction and came down stem on to the Cuba, striking nearly amidships, the bowsprit making a large hole in the port side near the upper deck The stem taking the steamer a foot further aft, crushed in a plank above the water line, tearing off the copper, and making a large opening just under water. The steamer was in a sinking condition, the water coming in rapidly and at one time reaching nearly to the fires, but by great efforts the ship was immediately given a list blankets and everything available were pressed into service, and on Sunday the ship was placed in a condition to make the harbor of Charleston The name and condition of the brig are unknown, as nothing was heard from her, but she was seen after the accident with her masts standing and canvas hoisted

Bravery Rewarded The Foreign Affairs Committee of the National House of Representatives have reported favorably on a bill giving to George F Robinson $5000 and a gold medal, for his bravery in saving the life of Secretary Seward, when attacked by Payne on the night of President Lincoln's assassination The details of the occurrence are familiar to the public mind, and need not be repeated Robinson, who is a native of Maine, is now a clerk in one of the departments at Washington on a salary of $1200 a year, and has a wife and child to support. The testimonial proposed is a tardy but just recognition of his heroic self sacrificing bravery

An impecunious individual named Shaw has been humbugging James Fisk Jr, by negotiating for the purchase of a steamer for $40 000, causing the company to incur an expense of some $800 for legal fees travelling expenses, &c It is stated that Shaw is a man without means and has attempted a transaction of a similar character in another city

Mrs Cross, the wife recently deserted by the bigamous New York bank clerk whose career was sketched in the Evening Post, has written to the N Y Times asking its aid in procuring music pupils to relieve the destitution of herself and child

DR SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER

Having for the last thirty five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter is Florida well down in the State where the temperature is regular and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes Palatka is a point I can recommend A good hotel is kept there by Peterman Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased but who under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines were getting well

One hundred miles further down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka as the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing Mellonville and Enterprise are located there I should give a decided preference to Mellonville it is two miles from river or lake and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better and patients complain at times but that is a good sign as it indicates a return of appetite and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh and then the lungs must heal

Jacksonville Hibernia Green Cove and many other places in various parts of Florida can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds he is certain to die shortly therefore my advice is go well down into the State out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver a disordered stomach deranged bowels sore throat or cough but for those whose lungs are diseased a more southern point is earnestly recommended

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York Boston Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week A practice so extensive embracing every possible phase of lung disease has enabled me to understand the disease fully and hence my caution in regard to taking cold A person may take vast quantities of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease In the Middle States it does not prevail so largely still there are many thousands of cases there What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small pox &c but they are not they take what they term a little cold which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days They pay no attention to it and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Schenck's Mandrake Pills and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action I know that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long

My plan is to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary My object is to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry I have hopes of such. With a relish for food and a gratification of that relish, comes good blood and with it more flesh which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs —then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy and the patient gets well provided he avoids taking cold

Now there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked Is there no hope of such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been to stay in a warm room during the winter with a temperature of about seventy degrees which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood I have cured thousands by this system and can do so again Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes and they will relieve you in two hours If you would obviate the effect of a change of water or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless They can do you only good.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist. J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.,

MAINE CENTRAL

RAILROAD

Extension Bonds.

It is generally well known the Maine Central Railroad terminates at Danville Junction, and from thence to Portland the Road is a part of the Grand Trunk Railway For the use of this piece of Road, (some 28 miles) the Maine Central pays to the Grand Trunk a rental which for some years past has amounted to some $70 000 per annum The Maine Central having leased the Portland & Kennebec R R and thus joined that entire Road with its own under one management has decided to obviate the necessity of using the Grand Trunk road from Danville to Portland by building an Extension of its own road from Danville Junction to CUMBERLAND, using the Portland and Kennebec R R from thence to Portland

This Extension has already been surveyed and, more than three fourths of the requisite grading and all the stone work and masonry completed and the road will be ready for the iron (already contracted for) in the Spring and prepared for business soon afterward To aid in accomplishing this work the Maine Central Railroad has issued its Bonds to the amount of $500 000 payable in thirty years from October 1st 1870

These Bonds are secured by a First and only Mortgage upon the Extension and the Entire line of the Maine Central with all its property (which would readily sell for three times the amount of its Bonded debt) is holden for the payment of the Interest and Principal of these Bonds

The security is

UNQUESTIONABLE.

A large part of this issue has already been taken in this and other States and the remainder is offered for sale at a price which makes them one of the most desirable investments in the market

The Bonds bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and both

Principal and Interest payable

IN GOLD.

Free from Government Tax

Coupons Payable in Boston, April 1st and October 1st in each Year

When it is considered that by building this Extension the Road can have a complete line of its own through to Portland at an outlay of some $30 000 (gold) per year for interest instead of paying some $70 000 per year rental to another corporation the commendable economy of the undertaking will be apparent

The local business alone on the Extension will be profitable besides the advantage to the Road of thus being connected by the same gauge with all the great Railroads of the Country

Bonds issued in denominations of $500 and $1000 each.

The highest market price will be allowed for Government, State, and City Bonds, Bonds of other Railroads and Corporations, and all marketable securities, in exchange for above

A New, Wonderful and Useful Invention,

CALLED A

Tidal Power,

Has been discovered at the expense of many years study and experiment which will revolutionize the method of obtaining power for driving machinery of all kinds

Although this power is obtained from the rise and fall of the tides machinery can be driven at a long distance from the seat of power with this invention, by means of a wire rope which is now in common use for similar purposes

This Machinery is so simple and occupies so little room that it can be erected on any wharf and the expense of the Machinery very trifling compared to other power

It will run for years without any expense and without any person to tend it the power being continuously obtained night and day if desired and a common a row being sufficient to drive light machinery

This power can easily and efficiently be applied to ring Fog Bells, saving the Government thousands of dollars yearly needing no attention after being once set in motion

The principle by which a continuous motion of the Main Shaft is insured in a given direction may also be applied to Sewing Machines and prevent the possibility of the machine changing to the troublesome backward motion which breaks the thread by using this process on Sewing Machines, both hands of the operator are entirely at liberty to hold the work Children can run them without trouble

In manufacturing Sewing Machines for the future the Balance Wheels can be entirely dispensed with consequently making a great saving in the manufacturing This principle can be applied to every machine at a trifling cost

The application of this principle an also be made to foot lathes the motion of the foot being hardly perceptible and more speed attained than with the crank It also saves the motion of the body when propelling the machine and favors the ankle

The Close Treadle for Sewing Machines constructed to embody the above named principle and capable of being applied to sewing machines of any size kind or shape are now being manufactured and in a few days may be seen at the clothing store of E C Smart on Exchange Street in operation attached to a sewing machine from the manufactory of B P Howe successor to the late A B Howe the originator of the Improved Howe Sewing Machine

A license to manufacture and sell ten thousand of the Close Treadle having been granted to A F Kimball agent for the Improved Howe Sewing Machine he will immediately introduce them to this market through his agents who will apply them to machines of any manufacture at prices so low that every person owning a Sewing Machine will be sure to have one

It is a useful and valuable invention and is worthy of the investigation of all scientific men

Letters Patent were issued for this Invention dated December 27th 1870 obtained through the agency of Fred H Coombs of this City

Great Excitement in Berlin.

RUMORS OF THE CAPITULATION

The Terms Offered by Germany

EXCITEMENT IN BERLIN — RUMORS AND SPECULATIONS

Berlin 2 The report of the arrival of Favre at Versailles and that he was received there created great excitement although it is not officially confirmed As soon as news supposed intended capitulation was spread abroad, the streets were speedily filled with multitude Great numbers of people repaired at once to the palace in hopes to see the Queen and hear from her lips the glad intelligence promising a speedy return of peace They were disappointed as no telegram had reached Her Majesty All public business was generally suspended, [illegible] anxious for the news— [illegible] well informed circles that the rumors of negotiations looking towards the capitulation are true, from the fact that Favre's presence at Versailles is un[illegible] some believe he may have left there with the hope of obtaining a pass to the London Conference The fact is official known here that only five days rations are left in Paris to-day. JUVENILE MAGAZINES

THE LITTLE CORPORAL MAGAZINE for February, comes to us fresh and pure as a snow flake, its illustrations beautiful and appropriate as usual, while its contents cannot fail to satisfy the most exacting of juvenile readers Mr. Sewell, the founder of the magazine has withdrawn from the firm, leaving the business to his former partner John E Miller, Chicago, Ill

OUR YOUNG FOLKS for February, has several more chapters of "Jack Hazard and his Fortune," that will make all young readers 'crazy' to hear more, and a beautiful little story from the pen of Miss Phelps, entitled Del, with the usual array of puzzles, riddles &c, so delightful to the youthful brain James Osgood & Co, Boston

The February number of OUR BOYS AND GIRLS, contains several chapters of Oliver Optic's new story "Cringle and Cross Tree," "The Doctor's Daughter" by Sophie May, and a host of other good things not the least of which is the "Original Dialogue" for this month Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston

BOWDOIN ALUMNI IN BOSTON The Alumni of Bowdoin College resident in Boston and vicinity held their third annual reunion at the Parker House Wednesday evening The Association held its annual election, which resulted in the unanimous choice of the Hon John C Dodge as President, Mr Charles M Cumston, Master of the English High School, as Vice President and D C, Linscott, Esq, as Secretary

An hour or more was passed in pleasant greetings and the revival of old memories, after which the doors to the dining-room were thrown open and the company sat down to a sumptuous feast. The Divine blessing was invoked by the Rev Dr. Webb. At the right of the President of the evening was placed the reverend President of the College, Samuel Harris, and on his left ex-President Woods. Among the company were many well known faces of gentlemen eminent in the various professions and in business life, the professional men of course predominating. The Rev. Benjamin G. Snow, the late veteran missionary, the Rev. Elijah Kellogg, Professor Charles C. Everett of Harvard, Professor Cyrus F Brackett of Bowdoin, Mr. James R. Osgood, Oliver Stevens, Esq., and others were among the most prominent.

BANGOR MERCANTILE ASSOCIATION.

According to previous notice, a public meeting of the members of the Bangor Mercantile Association was held last evening in their new rooms in Kenduskeag Block. A large number was present, and the President, N S. Harlow, Esq, after calling the meeting to order, read a report, which gave in detail the condition of the Library, etc On motion of Hon S H Dale, the report was accepted.

Mr Dale proceeded to speak of the value of the Association as an educator of the youth of the city He had hoped that by this time, a Public Library could have been ensured to us, but it was evident that it was not feasible at present, owing to the lack of warmth with which the proposition to establish one, had been met. Under the present circumstances a union of the libraries of the Mercantile and Mechanics' Associations seemed to be the best thing that could be done and he thought it would prove beneficial to both He presented the following

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, The 'Mercantile Library Association of this city, established in 1843, now with a membership of about 450 and with a library containing not far from 10,000 volumes of books, is a fact so very creditable to our business men as to merit our commendation and

Whereas, Believing the time has fully come to extend its usefulness, by the further additions of books to its library by relieving it from all embarrassment by multiplying and increasing its membership, and putting it on a footing equal to the wants of our growing city, therefore

Resolved, That an effort be immediately made to raise by subscription the sum of eight thousand dollars, to be invested, its income to be used only for the purchase of books, which fund may be converted to the use of a public Library

Resolved, That the thanks of the Association be extended to the committee who have had the matter in charge, for the very substantial, neat and convenient manner they have caused these beautiful rooms to be arranged, and that we pledge them our continued support.

Resolved That an invitation be extended to the Mechanics Association of this city to unite with us in these rooms believing that both associations would be benefitted thereby

Mr Dale said no effort should be spared to give the young men a share of the benefits of the library, and he thought it would be an excellent idea to reduce the subscription price one half to clerks and apprentices

Hon Henry E Prentiss argued the benefits of a public library and the great influence for good it would have in the community He was not prepared to oppose the resolutions offered by Mr Dale, but if adopted, they dispose of a public library, and he was sure that there was wealth and public spirit enough in Bangor to establish one It was better, he said, to lay the foundation of a public library now which in the future could be extended so as to comprise a museum and picture gallery The city and the public should be asked to give the building warm and light it, and furnish the librarian and assistants Let a subscription be started first, then apply to the Legislature for power to assess a tax with which to make up the required sum

Hon A. W Paine spoke at length of the importance of a public library He would have it opened every week, day and evening, and though there would be no sin in sitting quietly down to read in the rooms on Sunday if a person was thereby kept out of a worse place Especially important in a library were 'works of reference,' and he advocated the plan of having one department devoted entirely to such where authorities on every specific subject could be consulted

Mr Paine moved and it was voted, that the report of the President be published

Rev A Battles congratulated the Association on their new rooms and predicted a successful future He expressed himself in favor of a public library, and thought that now was the time to lay the foundation for it He regarded it as the compliment of the public schools—a part of the educational system and its establishment would bring about results far above the most sanguine expectations It should be opened every day of the week, and if on Sunday it draws better than the ministers do, why let the ministers "knock under But such a step would not result thus—it will work the other way and send people to church that never went before

Hon Edward Kent heartily concurred in what had been said of the importance of a public library and proceeded to show the great influence it would exert in the education of the people He referred to the war in Europe as illustrating the superiority of a nation which fostered popular education over one which neglected it, and closed with an appeal to the monied men of the city to use their influence and means for the establishment of a library which should be free to all

Gen S F Hersey favored a public library, and would use his best endeavors for its establishment and success He thought that the present was the time for exertion and pledged himself to be one of ten, who would give $1000 for that object in view If however a public library cannot be established now, the next best thing was to throw open the Mercantile library evenings for the benefit of the young men in the city—furnish sufficient attraction to draw them from the billiard rooms and saloons In order to pay their subscription, let those of us who are able give $10 $15, $25 or $50 above our regular annual fee

Hon A W Paine suggested that the annual subscription for the privilege of taking one volume at a time, be set at $2, or $1 for six months

Hon S H Dale said he liked the tone of Gen Hersey's remarks We came here to want, and the resolutions were offered to meet that want. At least $1000 was needed for a permanent fund, and he was willing and glad to pay his share of that sum The Mechanics' Library has a fund of $8000, the income of which is devoted to the purchase of books, and if the two libraries were consolidated, the Mercantile should be on an equal footing

This view was sustained by Messrs Prentiss and Hersey

Franklin Muzzy, Esq, said he was disappointed that the meeting appeared to give up the idea of a public library The fund of the Mechanics' Library can only be devoted to its original purpose, or to a free public library, so that if the libraries were united, it would not be available He thought if so small an association as the Mechanics' Library could raise a fund of $8000, it would be strange if in all the city, enough could not be obtained to establish a public library Mr Muzzy further argued the importance of the latter step

Hon A D Manson said that by working for the Mercantile Association, we were working for a public library It appeals to all as a great and good work If a sufficient fund be obtained, the cost of subscription will be placed so low that it can be afforded by all Our duty now is to aid the Association It is alive and doing its work and money now contributed will immediately produce fruit.

Charles E Lyon Esq said the meeting was called, as he understood, by the Mercantile Association to see what measures should be taken to pay the debts incurred in removing the library to the new rooms, etc, and not to discuss the project of a public library He hoped that the meeting would see that it was necessary to raise funds, and proceed to business at once, as the hour was late

J B Foster concurred with the preceding speaker and said that action was needed rather than discussion He was ready as a member of the Association to do all he could for its benefit. He preferred the establishment of a public library, but if that was impracticable, the Mercantile Library should be raised to the highest point of efficiency.

Hon Isaac R. Clark urged the necessity of raising the sum required to pay the debt of the association at once, and suggested that it be done before leaving the room.

Hon. G K. Jewett thought well of Mr Clark's suggestion, and said that if the association was in debt, now was the time to pay it. He was himself ready to contribute his part immediately.

Walter Brown Esq., concurred with the preceding speakers. He liked very much the new rooms of the Association, and was in favor of putting the library in good shape, financially, before starting any new project.

Rev. C. F. Allen was called upon to speak, but said he was "not the kind to call on"—the monied men were then in demand.

After some further discussion, the subscription to defray the debt of the Association was opened, and a number of members at once doubled their former subscriptions, so that the amount now nearly reaches the required sum

Gen. Hersey said he was obliged to leave the meeting then, but before leaving, would pledge himself to pay $100 above his regular dues, annually for five years, or until a public library was established.

On motion of Hon. I. R. Clark, the resolutions offered by S. H. Dale were adopted, and the meeting adjourned.

SHIPS ON THE SEA

BY TOM HOOD

I [illegible] a shallop on the sea
I wrote "Ambition" round the prow
It sped before the breezes free—
White broke the wave beneath the bow

[illegible] gray sky of early morn
[illegible] barred with golden cloud
[illegible] small bark was borne
[illegible] breezes thrilled the shroud

[illegible] heaven clomb
[illegible] wreck mounted up the sky
The maddening sea grew pale with foam
And lurid lightnings leaped on high

[illegible] my little boat was riven
The cordage reft the canvas rent
[illegible] on the shore its timbers riven
The breakers scattered as they spent

And yet another tiny boat
I ventured on the hungry main
[illegible]
I was [illegible] at evening's dim decline

I hung a lantern on the mast
A glow worm spark which faintly burned
[illegible] ray it cast
My shallop's course might be discerned

Night closed around the fated bark
I saw the gleaming cresset drown
[illegible] and the dark
[illegible] Hope went down

[illegible] I sit upon the shore

HOME COURTESIES —Now, you young fel[illegible] at the table reading the evening paper, [illegible] nodding in a surly way to your mother [illegible] sister take a test. If your clothes breath[illegible] a delicious fragrance—say of heliotrope or [illegible] —but would do so only when you are at [illegible] or only when you went abroad, which [illegible] you choose? Would you smell sweet [illegible] or when you went away from home? Would you have a perpetual climate of rare [illegible] in your own house, or elsewhere? Of [illegible] you would have it at home for your [illegible] comfort and enjoyment, you curmud[illegible] for nothing else But what is domes[illegible] courtesy but the breath of heliotropes and [illegible] at home? It is as much for your own [illegible] that you should be pleasant as it is for that of others. The happiest household in the world is that in which courtesy is new every morning and fresh every evening like the celestial benedictions

How many of us, brethren and sisters make home the rag bag of all humors and caprices and wretched moods of every kind, while we carefully hide them from the stran[illegible] When the guest arrives we slide a chair over the rent in the carpet, and slip a tidy over the worn edge of the sofa-cushion, and lay a prettily bound book over the ink stain upon the parlor table cloth and so at his coming the flying hair is smoothed, and the sullen look is gilded with a smile, and the sour tone is wonderfully sweet. Shriveled old Autumn blooms in a moment into rosy Spring And how is a youth to know that this house, where everything seems to smile, is not always as warm and sunny as he finds it? Yet this young woman, so neatly dress[illegible], so quietly mannered, so fascinating to the young man, may be most "inefficient" of human beings Still he can never know it until it is too late He cannot put it to the proof. He takes the divinity upon trust All that he knows is that she is a woman, and that he loves And whether he thinks that house-hold intelligence and thrift and endless courtesy come by nature, like Dogberry's reading and writing, or whether he assumes that, having a mother, his peerless princess has been carefully taught all the duties of a queen, or whether, as is most probable, he knows only that he loves, the duty of the parent is still the same.

But to the ordeal of the household who can come too well prepared? And what parent, what human being who has learned by experience, but would gladly equip every child with every equipment? No, Dorinda Jane, to whom the youth, crusty at home, will presently come sweetly smiling, it is not the flowing hair, and the graceful dress, and the bloom upon the cheek, and the soft lustre of the eye, that will make "home" happy. No, nor is it his horses and plate, and the luxury and ease he promises. If he is harsh and short and crabbed, what if he has fifty thous-and a year? If you are careless and ignorant and helpless, the victim instead of ruler of your house, what if your eyes are black and your cheeks a dim carnation? And you, dear Sir and Madam, who permit that boor to sit surly at the table, and to growl in monosyllables at home, you who suffer that fair-faced girl to grow up utterly unequal to the duties to which she will be called, you are responsible

THE MOTLEYS AND THE SHERIDAN FAMILY The recently marriage between the great grandson of Richard Brinsley Sheridan and Miss Motley, the daughter of Hon. John Lothrop Motley, which has already been announced, has attracted attention to the history of the descendants of the celebrated statesman and dramatic author and friend of George IV Richard Brinsley Sheridan had only one son, Thomas, who was in no way distinguished except as the father of three beautiful and accomplished daughters The eldest of these daughters, in 1825, married Baron Dufferin, and became the mother of Lord Dufferin, who is at present a member of the English ministry She subsequently, under romantic circumstances, married the Earl of Gifford, the eldest son of Marquis of Tweeddale The second daughter, the celebrated Hon Mrs Caroline Norton, is widely known for her abilities as a poet and novel writer The youngest daughter married the Duke of Somerset, and was "Queen of Beauty" at the famous Englington tournament.

Thomas Sheridan died very poor, leaving two sons in addition to the three daughters above mentioned These two sons went out to India, where the youngest died The elder son, Richard Brinsley Sheridan, having returned to England, eloped with Miss Colquhoun a rich heiress, and taking up his residence on his wife's property, at Frampton in Dorsetshire, was in 1845, elected to Parliament from the borough of Shaftesbury in that County He was also made a magistrate, and he Deputy Lieutenant for Dorsetshire He sat in Parliament from Shaftesbury, from 1845 till July, 1852, and from Dorchester, until 1868 Richard Brinsley Sheridan the younger, has had three sons and two daughters The eldest son is now dead, the second son is in feeble health, and the third son, who is to marry Miss Motley, it is believed, will inherit the large estate of his mother Mr Sheridan's second daughter is married to Baron Poltimore

GOVERNOR DORR —I was a schoolboy at Rivermouth when Governor Dorr swept like a brilliant comet into the narrow arc of my observation One day in the summer of 18— I was going home from school when I saw standing in front of Wall's Drug Store a showily dressed person, who seemed to me well advanced in years, that is to say, twenty-five or thirty, he was the center of a little circle of idle fellows about town, who were drinking in with obvious relish one of those pre-Raphaelite narratives which I was afterwards destined to swallow with open-mouthed wonder The genial twinkle of the man's blue eyes the glow of his half smoked cigar, and the blaze of the diamond on his little finger, all seemed the members of one radiant family To this day I cannot disassociate a sort of glitter with the memory of my first glimpse of Governor Dorr He had finished speaking as I joined the group, and I caught only the words, "and that was the last of gallant Jack Martinway," delivered in a particularly mellow baritone voice, when he turned abruptly and disappeared behind the orange and scarlet jars in Dr Wall's shop-window

Who is gallant Jack Martinway, I wonder ed, and who is this dazzling person that wears his best clothes on a week day? I took him for some distinguished military hero, and with a fine feeling for anachronism immediately connected him with the portrait of Sir Walter Raleigh in Mitchell's Geography,—a work I was at that time neglecting with considerable perseverance

The apparition of so bewildering a figure in our staid, slow going little town was likely to cause a sensation The next day in school I learned all about him He was Governor Dorr, he had once been a boy in Rivermouth like us, but had gone off years ago to seek his fortune and now he had come back immensely wealthy from somewhere—South America or the Chincha islands where he was governor and was going to settle down in his native town and buy the "Bilkins Mansion,"—an estate which the heirs were too poor to keep, and nobody else rich enough to purchase—[T B Aldrich in Atlantic Monthly for February

Probably the highest rate of speed ever attained in locomotion has been by ice boats scudding before the wind with a cloud of canvas over a smooth expanse of ice Upon Lake Winnebago, between Fond du Lac and towns at the opposite extremity, it is said that a speed of seventy five or eighty miles an hour has been repeatedly witnessed, with an unobstructed surface and a high wind—The fastest motion ever achieved by the locomotive engine in England is recorded in the books as at the rate of seventy seven miles an hour and this only for a short distance

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT!

Is now in its Sixtieth year, and is to-day, where it is known, the most popular medicine in the United States. Thousands of people even in Maine use it for the first time each year and thousands more might be benefitted by it were they aware of its inestimable value There is positively no medicine in this country adapted to the relief and cure of so great a variety of diseases and ailments as Johnson's Anodyne Liniment People generally throughout the New England States are enthusiastic in its praise and many thousands of bona fide certificates might be obtained from those whose prejudice has been overcome by its salutary results It would be impossible here to enumerate all the varied uses for which the Anodyne Liniment is perfectly adapted, but the proprietors will cheerfully send prepaid, to any one who will write for it, a pamphlet giving full particulars together with many certificates and much other valuable information A few certificates are here given which it is hoped will have the consideration they deserve coming as they do from gentlemen of the highest respectability From Gov Chamberlain

Brunswick April 18th, 1870

MY DEAR SIR —I have never been without your Anodyne Liniment since I can remember I regard it the best thing of the kind in the market We used a great deal of it in the army during the war where it was as popular as it is at home Congratulating you upon your success and upon the good you are doing at the same time,

I am your friend and servant.

Lowell Mass, Sept 11th, 1869

GENTLEMEN —A friend of mine has been troubled with a hacking cough for several years and recently was so weak that he was unable to work Having seen the effects of your liniment on others, I took home a bottle and gave him, in less than a week the cough had entirely left him I have no hesitation in recommending it to all our customers who are in want of a good thing

Very Respectfully yours,

H S WOOD

Druggist and Apothecary

Jonesboro, March 11th 1870

GENTLEMEN —Please send me by return mail one half gross Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as it is the only remedy for Putrid sore throat, and Scarlet Rash Every person uses it with perfect success when all other medicine fails

From C O Furbush, Esq, editor of the Machias Republican

GENTLEMEN —Since one of your firm presented me with a bottle of your Anodyne Liniment I have never been without it in my house and consider it the very best thing of the kind to be found in the market I have also used your Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders and found them all that was claimed for them

We also have letters sent us voluntarily from George A Fles, Esq, Editor of the Piscataquis Observer, Jeremiah Fenno Esq Collector of Internal Revenue, Bangor Me Rev. James Wells Dedham, late Chaplain 11th Maine Volunteers Samuel Jewett Esq Supt Alms House Bangor Me and many others. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is both for internal and external use, and is equally good for man or beast

SHERIDAN'S CAVALRY CONDITION POWDERS FOR Horses, Cattle and Sheep.

These Powders should be given in all cases for Loss of Appetite, Roughness of the Hair Stoppage of Bowels or Water, or thick Water, all Coughs and Colds, Swelling of the Glands of the Throat Worms, Horse All, Hide-Bound, Thick Wind, and Heaves They are equally good for Diseases of Horned Cattle and Sheep

VALUABLE TESTIMONY

IN FAVOR OF SHERIDAN'S CAVALRY CONDITION POWDERS

We regard the following as the most valuable testimony which we have to produce to show the value of our Powders over all others and the importance of giving them freely to horses that labor constantly —

Dec 7, 1865

Our travelling agent called upon Messrs S W Pope & Co, lumber merchants, Machias, Me, and tried to sell them some of our Sheridan's Horse Powders, but they refused to buy them, stating, first, that they did not believe that they were "any good" and secondly, that they had some of another kind on hand, which they could neither use or sell on account of their worthlessness Our agent deeming it important that they should have them (knowing that they employed a large number of horses in their business) proposed to leave them three (3) dozen with the understanding that they should use them and if not entirely satisfied they were to pay nothing for them. The Messrs Pope & Co accepted the proposition, and took the Powders In June, six months after, our agent again visited them, when they cheerfully paid for the three (3) dozen left conditionally, and bought five (5) dozen more In December following, just twelve months from date of leaving the first three (3) dozen, on his return from the Provinces, our agent sold them eight (8) dozen more, making SIXTEEN (16) dozen sold them for cash, in just one year We avail ourselves of this opportunity to publicly thank the Messrs Pope & Co for their generosity in permitting us the use of their names, for certainly there are none more widely or favorably known, and none that would be of more advantage to us in point of influence

AN HONEST DOUBTER CONVINCED

In February, 1866, our agent called upon Capt Charles Sager, who keeps the largest and best stock of let horses in the city of Portland Me, and tried to sell him a sample dozen of our "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders but the captain stubbornly refused to buy and would not even receive them on trial, with the option to pay or not, as he pleased remarking that he could make a Condition Powder himself that would answer his purpose, besides, he had some of another kind on hand, that he used occasionally So our agent contented himself with putting up a poster in his office gave him a package of the Powders and departed Just one year later Capt Sager went to the City Hotel, met our agent and without solicitation, bought for cash 12 dozen of the Cavalry Powders, and volunteered the use of his name, in any way that would tend to increase their field of usefulness

All who know Capt Sager, and have done business with him will unite with us in saying that he is one of the most candid reliable, and gentlemanly horse men in the State of Maine and his opinion on this, as well as on other subjects in any way connected with horses is entitled to great consideration

Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders.

Important Notice to Owners of Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs

The propriety of giving medicines to horses and stock occasionally in their food is becoming more and more apparent each year and it is attributable to the growing perception of the fact among all horses and stock keepers that medicines are as necessary at times for a horse, as for a man, and that with them they can be kept in better order will do more work, and at less expense than without them But it commonly happens that veterinary knowledge is confined to the hostler of the stable, and others of that genus who are quite as profound as he but not any more so and consequently many valuable animals are lost for want of a little intelligence in the art of diagnosing their disorder or the mode of giving medicines To meet a universal demand for a laxative alterative medicine for horses and stock easily administered and adapted to the want of Farmers, Breeders and livery-men, the proprietors of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment secured the right to manufacture and sell for general use Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders These powders have been sold and used extensively since the close of the war throughout the New England States and the Dominion of Canada and in many parts of the west and the experience of those who have used them has abundantly shown their perfect adaptation for all the purposes of a condition medicine We have a large number of certificates from some of those who have witnessed the beneficial effect resulting from a frequent use of these Powders, but we can only present here a few well known names of the highest respectability and standing who have kindly volunteered to endorse these powders in hope that they may become still more widely known than at present

Hon Joseph Farwell Mayor of Rockland, Me Capt Chas Sager, Portland, Me O M Shaw, Esq Abram Woodard, Esq, Isaac M. Bragg, Esq, Messrs S & J Adams & Co and Taylor Durgin Esq Street Commissioner, of Bangor Maine, Messrs S W Pope, & Co Machias, Me Hon Wm Kelly Commissioner of board of Public Works Province of N B Pamphlets giving valuable information in regard to keep and care of horses and stock together with many certificates in regard to Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders may be obtained free, of nearly all dealers in medicine throughout the country

WHAT THEY ARE FOR.

"Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders' should be given to horses in all cases for loss of Appetite, Roughness of the Hair, Stoppage of Bowels or Water, or Thick Water, all Coughs and Colds Swelling of the Glands of Throat, Worms, Horse-ail, Hide bound, Thick Wind, and Heaves. They are equally good for diseases of horned cattle sheep and Hogs, young colts or horses fitting for market may be greatly improved, and very much enhanced in value, by the use of these powders

Old horses, almost worn out and apparently worthless, may be rejuvenated and made to do a reasonable amount of service, by the use of the "Cavalry Condition Powders" Most horses are subject to worms, and, while they exist in a horse he cannot thrive: the food that should strengthen and nourish the animal is absorbed by the worms; hence the horse will have a great appetite, and continually grow poor.

SYMPTOMS—Hide-bound, coat stares, eyes dull and glaring, great appetite, &c, "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders" will positively relieve the worst cases

There is no man, or set of men, that can use these powders on a horse, no matter how (apparently) well he may be, without admitting that the horse has been benefitted many times the value of the powders given.

FROM THE HON JOSEPH FARWELL, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF ROCKLAND, ME.

In July, 1865, our agent met with the Hon Joseph Farwell at the Eastern Hotel, Machias, Me, on his way to Pembroke He remarked that his horse had not been well during the day, and had manifested signs of giving out. In the evening the horse grew much worse, and showed symptoms of having a stoppage of water, our agent gave Mr Farwell a package of our Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders He gave the horse a good dose that night, and the next morning he departed with his horse apparently well. We heard no more of the matter till the following May, when our agent met Mr Farwell at his home in the city of Rockland, Me., when he remarked that the Powders he had received did his horse a great deal of good; that he had used them frequently since, and always with gratifying results; and that he regarded them as the best Condition Powder in the country and very kindly said, if his name would be of any service to us, we might use it. Mr. Farwell's address is Rockland, Maine, and for a verification of the foregoing plain statement of facts, any person is at liberty to address him.

Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin,	Eruptions of the face,
Universal Lassitude,	Pallid Countenance,

of the Muscular System

These symptoms, if allowed to go on (which this Medicine invariably removes) soon follow—

FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS &c,

in one of which the patient may expire Who can say they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION?

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess The records of the insane asylums and the melancholy deaths by consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion

The Constitution, once affected by organic weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system which H, T HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT OF BUCHU invariably does A trial will convince the most sceptical of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the Blood Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, It cleanses and renovates the Blood Instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought and now the public have one on which they can depend Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has its virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made

O

H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for diseases arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines Also explicit directions for use, with hundreds of thousands living witnesses, and upwards of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, &c The Proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers, he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates

The Science of Medicine, like the Doric Column should stand simple, pure, majestic, having fact for its basis, Induction for its pillar, and Truth alone for its Capital

Caveats Specifications, Assignments and all papers for Patents executed on reasonable terms with dispatch Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions and legal and other advice rendered on all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar Assignments recorded in Washington

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors

TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practioners with whom I have had official intercourse

CHARLES MASON Commissioner of Patents

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office

EDMUND BURKE

Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR R. H EDDY has made for me THIRTY applications for Patents having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their patents as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges
